

Praise Medley

Medley Includes:

*We Praise Thee, O God
Hallelujah, Praise Jehovah
To God Be the Glory*

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Shout with joy to God, all the earth!
Sing to the glory of his name;
offer him glory and praise!
Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds!
So great is your power that your enemies cringe before you.
All the earth bows down to you;
they sing praise to you, they sing praise to your name."
Come and see what God has done, how awesome his works in man's behalf!
Praise our God, O peoples,
let the sound of his praise be heard;
He has preserved our lives and kept our feet from slipping.
Come and listen all you who fear God;
let me tell you what he has done for me.
I cried out to him with my mouth;
his praise was on my tongue.

Holy, Holy

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

There he went into a cave and spent the night.

And the word of the LORD came to him:

“What are you doing here, Elijah?”

He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty.

The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword.

I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

The LORD said, “Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by.”

Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind.

After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire.

And after the fire came a gentle whisper.

When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave.

Then a voice said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

God's Might Medley

Medley Includes:Awesome GodAwesome PowerHoly, Holy, Holy Is the Lord of Hosts

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the LORD seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple.

Above him were seraphs, each with six wings . . .

And they were calling to one another:

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory."

Then I heard the voice of the LORD saying,

"Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?"

And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

It was necessary, then, for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

For Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary that was only a copy of the true one; he entered heaven itself, now to appear for us in God's presence.

Suggestions and Leader's Notes: This great hymn was born out of deep anguish and pain. When Mathison began going blind, his fiancé, upon learning of his condition, broke their engagement. This drove Mathison into deep mental depression. During this period, he wrote this beloved hymn. To use the medley idea, pitch #245 in the key of Ab and sing in the order given.

Suggestions and Leader's Notes: Note carefully the words of this song. Ideal song for appointment of leaders or mission outreach. May select readings from the following passages: 1 Timothy 6:11-16; 2 Timothy 4:1-5; Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 20:28, 32; 1 Corinthians 15:58.

Exaltation Medley

Medley Includes:
He Is Exalted
Be Exalted, O God
I Exalt Thee

I will extol the LORD at all times;
 his praise will always be on my lips.

My soul will boast in the LORD;
 let the afflicted hear and rejoice.

Glorify the LORD with me;
 let us exalt his name together.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me;
 he delivered me from all my fears.

Those who look to him are radiant;
 their faces are never covered with shame.

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
 and he delivers them.

Taste and see that the LORD is good;
 blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men.

Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

Medley Instructions:

To hear the transition from songs #60 to #61, think of the final chord of #60 as a dominant (V7) chord into new key of "Be Exalted, O God" (#61). To further aid in the transition, teach a few altos or basses to slide down to an Eb in the final chord of #60 and hold it out, then begin #61. From #61, sopranos modulate up one step and begin with the refrain of #62 for smooth transition of keys.

he commanded, and it stood firm.

I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and ever.

Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever.

Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;
his greatness no one can fathom.

One generation will commend your works to another;
they will tell of your mighty acts.

They will speak of the glorious splendor of your Suggestions and Leader's Notes: Women sing one stanza while other parts hum. Personalize this song using slide presentation of people of all ages and walks of life, including your own congregation. Modulate up a step for stanzas 3 and 4. You can use the stanzas of #81 as a descant on this song, the words being "He has done great things. He died for my sin. Jesus Christ is Lord." Sing descant with the repeat of the first verse: "God is so good."

*Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

God, Who Stretched the Spangled*

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

Praise the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, you are very great;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.

He wraps himself in light as with a garment;
he stretches out the heavens like a tent and lays the beams of his upper chambers on their waters.

He makes the clouds his chariot and rides on the wings of the wind.

He makes winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.

He set the earth on its foundations;
it can never be moved.

You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.

But at your rebuke the waters fled,
at the sound of your thunder they took to flight;

they flowed over the mountains,
they went down into the valleys,
to the place you assigned for them.

You set a boundary they cannot cross;
never again will they cover the earth.

He makes springs pour water into the ravines;
it flows between the mountains.

They give water to all the beasts of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

The birds of the air nest by the waters;
they sing among the branches.

He waters the mountains from his upper chambers;
the earth is satisfied by the fruit of his work.

He makes grass grow for the cattle, and plants for man to cultivate—bringing forth food from the earth.

Grace Medley

*Medley Includes:Grace Greater Than Our SinWonderful Grace of JesusHis Grace Reaches MeTo facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.

And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages he might show
the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus.

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast.

For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works,
which God prepared in advance for us to do.

The Faith That Justifies

But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify.
 This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe.

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith,
 we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand.

He saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy.

He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

God's Love Medley

Medley Includes:Come, Let Us All Unite to SingThe Love of GodThe Steadfast Love of the LordTo facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

I will praise you, O Lord, among the nations;
 I will sing of you among the peoples.
 For great is your love, reaching to the heavens;
 your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
 let your glory be over all the earth.

O LORD, our Lord,
 how majestic is your name in all the earth!
 You have set your glory above the heavens.
 From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise.
 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,
 the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
 what is man that you are mindful of him,
 the son of man that you care for him?
 You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor.
 You made him ruler over the works of your hands;
 you put everything under his feet.
 O LORD, our Lord,
 how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Dear friends, let us love one another,
 for love comes from God.
 Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.
 Whoever does not love does not know God,
 because God is love.
 This is how God showed his love among us:
 He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.
 This is love: not that we loved God,
 but that he loved us and sent his Son
 as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

At age eleven, John's mother died, and his father took him off to sea. On a visit back home he was impounded by the Navy and pressed into service. He escaped from the Navy, only to be impounded again. But this time, the Navy traded him to a slave trader and he became involved in the slave trade and gross immorality. He was eventually imprisoned, and then rescued by a friend of his father.

In 1748, he boarded the Greyhound headed for home, but encountered a terrible storm on the way. After 27 days of being lost at sea, the crew finally sighted land.

This experience drove Newton back to the faith taught at his mother's knee. He became a preacher, and the fire that was now lit would never again be extinguished.

At age eighty-two, near death, almost blind, and with fading memory, he spoke these words: "My memory is nearly gone, but I remember two things. I'm a great sinner and Christ is a great Savior."

John Newton still lives on in this, the world's best-loved hymn . . .

Suggestions and Leader's Notes for #130: Carolina Sandell, known as the "Swedish Nightingale," penned these words as a teenager. Tragedy struck her own life at age 26 as she witnessed her father drown in a boating accident, she then lost her mother two years later. These tragic experiences led her to write many hymns that reflect the security she found in both life and death. Can use children to sing first verse.

The Resurrection

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week,
 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.
 There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and,
 going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it.
 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.
 The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.
 The angel said to the women,
 "Do not be afraid,
 for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.
 He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.
 Come and see the place where he lay.
 Then go quickly and tell his disciples:
 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee.
 There you will see him.'
 Now I have told you."
 So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy.

Above All Else

God gave Him the name above all other names. – Philippians 2:9

The image displays a musical score for a vocal and piano arrangement of 'The Lord's Prayer'. The score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: 'You are ex- alt - ed, Lord, a - bove allelse; We place You at the high - est place, a - bove all else. Right now where we stand and ev - 'ry - where we go; We place You at the high - est place so the world will know.  the LORD is robed in majesty and is armed with strength.
 The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.
 Your throne was established long ago; you are from all eternity.
 The seas have lifted up, O LORD,
 the seas have lifted up their voice;
 the seas have lifted up their pounding waves.
 Mightier than the thunder of the great waters, mightier than the breakers of the sea—
 the LORD on high is mighty.
 Your statutes stand firm;
 holiness adorns your house for endless days, O LORD.

The LORD reigns, let the nations tremble;
 he sits enthroned between the cherubim, let the earth shake.
 Great is the LORD in Zion; he is exalted over all the nations.
 Let them praise your great and awesome name—he is holy.
 The King is mighty, he loves justice—you have established equity;
 in Jacob you have done what is just and right.
 Exalt the LORD our God and worship at his footstool;

189 Master, the Tempest Is Raging

C/G

He rebuked the wind and it was completely calm. – Mark 4:37-41

1. Mas-ter, the temp-est is rag-ing! The bil-lows are toss-ing high!

2. Mas-ter, with an-quish of spir-it I bow in my grief to-day;

3. Mas-ter, the ter-ror is o-ver, The el-e-ments sweet-ly rest;

The sky is o'er-shad-owed with black-ness, No shel-ter or help is nigh;

The depths of my sad heart are trou-bled; O wak-en and save, I pray!

Earth's sun in the calm lake is mir-rored, And heav-en's with-in my breast.

Car-est Thou not that we per-ish? How canst Thou lie a-sleep,

Tor-rents of sin and of an-guish Sweep o'er my sink-ing soul!

Lin-ger, O bless-ed Re-deem-er, Leave me a-lone no more;

When each mo-moment so mad-ly is threat-'ning A grave in the an-gry deep?

And I per-ish! I per-ish, dear Mas-ter; O has-ten, and take con-troll!

Call to Worship No. 4

Medley Includes:

Stand Up and Bless the Lord Crown Him with Many Crowns Great Is Thy Faithfulness

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever:
and blessed be thy glorious name,
which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

Thou, even thou, art LORD alone;
thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all;
and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chal-dees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;
and foundest his heart faithful before thee.

The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them.
They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them,
and Jesus sat on them.

A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.
The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted,
"Hosanna to the Son of David!"
"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"
"Hosanna in the highest!"

When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked,
"Who is this?"
The crowds answered,
"This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.
They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.
I say to myself,
"The LORD is my portion;
therefore I will wait for him."

Wonderful Counselor

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.
And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end.
He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.
The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

He is "the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone."
Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men
by which we must be saved.

On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written:
KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth.

Declare his glory among the nations,
 his marvelous deeds among all peoples.

For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;
 he is to be feared above all gods.

Splendor and majesty are before him;
 strength and glory are in his sanctuary.

Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

220 Power of His Name Medley

Medley Includes:

*Jesus, Name Above All Names
There's Something About That Name
His Name Is Life*

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:

Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

“You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being.”

And they sang a new song:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain,
and with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God,
and they will reign on the earth.”

Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands,
and ten thousand times ten thousand.

They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders.

In a loud voice they sang:

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!”

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, singing:

“To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!”

The four living creatures said, “Amen,”

and the elders fell down and worshiped.

My tongue will speak...of Your praises all day long. – Psalm 35:28

1. O for a thou-sand tongues to sing, My great Re-deem-er's praise,
 2. My gra-cious Mas-ter and my God, As-sist me to pro-claim,
 3. Je-sus! the name that charms our fears, That bids our sor-rows cease,
 4. He breaks the pow'r of can-celed sin, He sets the pris-oner free;
 5. Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb, Your loos-ened tongues em-ploy;

The glo-ries of my God and King, The tri-umphs of His grace!
 To spread through all the earth a-broad The hon-ors of Thy name.
 'Tis mu-sic in the sin-ner's ears, 'Tis life and health and peace.
 His blood can make the foul-est clean, His blood a-vailed for me.
 Ye blind, be-hold your Sav-ior come; And leap, ye lame, for joy! A-men.

Suggestions and Leader's Notes for #233: This classic by Wesley is considered to be his finest of 6,500 hymns. On a stone edifice, erected by the Anglican church, were carved these words: "God buries His workman, but continues His work." Years earlier, this same church had forced Wesley to leave. But to this day, Charles Wesley's work lives on through his hymns.

256 Priceless Love

Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies.
Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains,
your justice like the great deep.
O LORD, you preserve both man and beast.
How priceless is your unfailing love!
Both high and low among men find refuge

His Majesty

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word.
 After he had provided purification for sins,
 he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.
 So he became as much superior to the angels
 as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.
 But about the Son he says,
 "Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever,
 and righteousness will be the scepter of your kingdom.

Thomas' Story

But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side,
I will not believe it."

Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!"

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands."

Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe."

Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

The first staff of music is in G major (one flat) and 2/2 time. It begins with a whole rest, followed by a half rest, and then a series of eighth and sixteenth notes.

(1. Hail, Je - sus, You're my King.

The bass line of 'The Rose Tree' is written in 2/2 time and B-flat major. It begins with a whole rest, followed by a whole note chord of B-flat and D-flat. The melody then consists of a series of eighth notes: B-flat, A-flat, G-flat, F, E-flat, D-flat, C, and B-flat, ending with a whole note chord of B-flat and D-flat.

Your life frees me to sing.

I will praise You all my days.

The musical notation for the bass staff shows two measures of whole notes, each marked with an '8' indicating an octave transposition. This is followed by four measures of chords, each consisting of a pair of notes (likely octaves) tied across the measure boundaries. The final measure contains a single note tied from the previous measure.

The Touch of His Hand

In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious.

The desert and the parched land will be glad;
 the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.

Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom;
 it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy.

The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
 the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;
 they will see the glory of the LORD, the splendor of our God.

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened
 and the ears of the deaf unstopped.

Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy.

Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

The burning sand will become a pool,
 the thirsty ground bubbling springs.

In the haunts where jackals once lay,
 grass and reeds and papyrus will grow.

But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death,
because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him.

David said about him:

"I saw the Lord always before me.
Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will live in hope,
because you will not abandon me to the grave,
nor will you let your Holy One see decay.
You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence."

Medley Includes:

The Old Rugged Cross

Beneath the Cross of Jesus

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

After they had mocked him,
they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him.
Then they led him away to crucify him.
When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes
by casting lots.

Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross.
It read:

JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying,
“You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself!
Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!”
About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani ?”—which means,
“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”
And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.

Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law
by becoming a curse for us,
for it is written:
“Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ.

And through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven,
by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

The Way That He Loves
Alas! and Did My Savior Bleed!
Boundless Love

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

What, then, shall we say in response to this?
 If God is for us, who can be against us?
 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?
 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen?
     It is God who justifies.
 Who is he that condemns?
     Christ Jesus, who died—more than that,
     who was raised to life—
     is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.
 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
     Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?
 As it is written:
     “For your sake we face death all day long;
     we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”
 No, in all these things
     we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.
 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,
     neither the present nor the future,
     nor any powers, neither height nor depth,
     nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Love in Action

Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up,
 that everyone who believes in him
 may have eternal life.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish
 but have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

Calvary Medley

*Medley Includes: Blessed Redeemer
Lead Me to Calvary
I Will Praise Him!*

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
He grew up before him like a tender shoot,
and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him,
nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.
He was despised and rejected by men,
a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering.
Like one from whom men hide their faces
he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God,
smitten by him, and afflicted.
But he was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was upon him,
and by his wounds we are healed.
We all, like sheep, have gone astray,
each of us has turned to his own way;
and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth;
he was led like a lamb to the slaughter,
and as a sheep before her shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
By oppression and judgment he was taken away.
And who can speak of his descendants?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;
for the transgression of my people he was stricken.
He was assigned a grave with the wicked,
and with the rich in his death,
though he had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in his mouth.

Resurrection Medley

Medley Includes:
Low in the Grave He Lay
Christ, the Lord Is Risen Today
He Lives

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used
as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).*

It is the whisper of the first breath;
It is the rustle of graveclothes Being laid aside, folded and Squared on a cold ledge.

It is the sound of fingertips
Brushing along a hewn wall
In predawn darkness.

It is the rasp of a stone wheel
Grating in its track.

What unearthly stillness Greets this once-corpse as He surveys the earth
That had been his torture-chamber.

I hear these sounds Across two thousand years, and
My lips strain to speak to him.

I want to tear away
My garments of death.

I grope through my darkness,
My shoulder failing against the weight—

This sound I hear,
This sound I hear
Is the sound of my Jesus Rising again in

Of First Importance

Now, brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand.

By this gospel you are saved,
if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you.
Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance:

that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,
that he was buried,

that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Peter, and then to the Twelve.

After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep.

Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also,
as to one abnormally born.

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi,
 he asked his disciples,
 "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"
 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."
 "But what about you?" he asked.
 "Who do you say I am?"
 Simon Peter answered,
 "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

*Medley Includes: Breath of Heaven

How Beautiful*

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
"Take and eat; this is my body."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying,
"Drink from it, all of you.
This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.
I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom."

When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

On the evening of that first day of the week,
when the disciples were together,
with the doors locked for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood among them and said,
"Peace be with you!"

After he said this, he showed them his hands and side.
The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.
Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you!

As the Father has sent me, I am sending you."
And with that he breathed on them and said,
"Receive the Holy Spirit.
If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven;
if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

When the day of Pentecost came,
they were all together in one place.
Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

"This compassionate song reflects upon the glories of heaven and the injury that creation inflicted upon the Creator. What a terrible misdeed! However, Jesus is able to take even scars and make them precious. We cherish those scars, not because we are proud of the hurt, but because of what they represent: His grace and mercy."

And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication.
They will look on me, the one they have pierced,
and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for him as one grieves for a firstborn son.

On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

The Conduit

In the temple now they are killing the lambs. There
Two hundred and seventy thousand will die. The air
Of Jerusalem has been filled with their bleating
All day, as red-sleeved priests perform their duty of meting
Out death. One by one, white throats are slit.
The temple has the hot, moist smell of blood about it.
A conduit drains from the great brass altar down
To the brook Kidron.

But in the dusk-light of this Thursday, the leaves
Of the olive trees tremble as the wind heaves
And lunges into them. Men approach the blood-swollen creek And cross this bridge, hurrying toward the shade they seek.

Why has this lone Man stooped at the Kidron before He crosses,
His finger just touching the red water, and pauses, Pauses?

The Vine and Branches 384

I am the vine; you are the branches.
 If a man remains in me and I in him,
     he will bear much fruit;
     apart from me you can do nothing.
 If anyone does not remain in me,
     he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers;
     such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned.
 If you remain in me and my words remain in you,
     ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you.
 This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

God's Abundant Love

We know that we live in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.
 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world.
 If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God,
 God lives in him and he in God.
 And so we know and rely on the love God has for us.
 God is love.
 Whoever lives in love lives in God,
 and God in him.
 In this way, love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him.
 There is no fear in love.
 But perfect love drives out fear,
 because fear has to do with punishment.
 The man who fears is not made perfect in love.

Anchor of the Soul

Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath.

God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged.

We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.

It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf.

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in B-flat major and 4/4 time. It consists of eight systems of staves. The lyrics are: 'Come in - to His pres-ence with thanks-giv-ing in your heart and give Him praise, and give Him praise; Come in - to His pres-ence with thanks-giv-ing in your heart, your voic-es raise, your voic-es raise. Give glo-ry and hon-or and pow-er un-to Him, Je-sus, the name a-bove all names.' The score includes a 'Repeat for final ending' section. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The piece ends with a final chord marked with an '8'.

Love Lifted Me

Bb/F

When he began to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me!" – Matthew 14:30

1. I was sink-ing deep in sin, Far from the peace-ful shore, Ver-y deep-ly
 2. All my heart to Him I give, Ev-er to Him I'll cling, In His bless-ed
 3. Souls in dan-ger, look a-bove, Je-sus com-plete-ly saves; He will lift you stained with-in, Sink-ing to rise no more; But the Mas-ter of the sea pres-ence live, Ev-er His prais-es sing. Love so might-y and so true by His love Out of the an-gry waves. He's the Mas-ter of the sea, Heard my de-spair-ing cry, From the wa-ters lift-ed me Now safe am I.
 Mer-its my soul's best songs; Faith-ful, lov-ing ser-vice, too, To Him be-long.
 Bil-lows His will o-bey; He your Sav-ior wants to be Be saved to-day.

Refrain
 Love lift-ed me! e-ven me! Love lift-ed me! e-ven me!
 1. When noth-ing else could help, Love lift-ed me. 2. Won-der-ful Love lift-ed me.

"Rock of Ages" is one of the best known and loved of English hymns. The imagery of the rock is taken from Exodus 17:1-6 where Moses was commanded to strike the rock at Horeb to provide water for the thirsty Israelites. He is our Rock, too, the source of our living water. Only He can quench our thirst."

Tomorrow Medley

Medley Includes;
I Know Who Holds Tomorrow
Because He Lives
I Know That My Redeemer Lives

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Now listen, you who say,

"Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money."

Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow.

What is your life?

You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

Instead, you ought to say,

"If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that."

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear.

Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes?"

"But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you.

I do not give to you as the world gives.

Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Victory Medley

Medley Includes:
Faith Is the Victory
Victory in Jesus
Let God Arise

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men,
 so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God.

You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly,
 To Jesus the mediator of a new covenant,
 and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe.

Blessed Assurance

The fruit of righteousness will be peace;
 the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence forever.

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain,
 that is, his body,
 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,
 let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water.
 Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess,
 for he who promised is faithful.

Heart and Soul Medley

Medley Includes:Into the Heart of JesusIs It Well with Your Soul?It Is Well with My SoulTo facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love,
 I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.
 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.
 If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames,
 but have not love, I gain nothing.
 Love is patient, love is kind.
 It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.
 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.
 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.
 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
 Love never fails.
 And now these three remain:
 faith, hope and love.
 But the greatest of these is love.

Love must be sincere.
 Hate what is evil; cling to what is good.
 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love.
 Honor one another above yourselves.

This is how we know what love is:
 Jesus Christ laid down his life for us.
 And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.
 If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him?
 Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue
 but with actions and in truth.
 This then is how we know that we belong to the truth, and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence.

505 Wonderful Savior Medley

Medley Includes:

No One Ever Cared for Me like Jesus

Does Jesus Care?

A Wonderful Savior

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used
as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).*

I lift up my eyes to the hills—where does my help come from?
My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot slip—
    he who watches over you will not slumber;
    indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The LORD watches over you—
    the LORD is your shade at your right hand;
    the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.
The LORD will keep you from all harm—
    he will watch over your life;
    the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this:
While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
Since we have now been justified by his blood,
    how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him!
For if, when we were God's enemies,
    we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son,
    how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!
Not only is this so,
    but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches.
I am the Root and the Offspring of David,
and the bright Morning Star."

The Spirit and the bride say,
    "Come!"

And let him who hears say,
    "Come!"

Whoever is thirsty, let him come;
    and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

To the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves.
 In him we have redemption through his blood,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding.
 And he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure,

537 Here We Are But Straying Pilgrims

G/G

All these people were still living by faith when they died. – Hebrew 11: 13

- 1. Here we are but stray-ing pil-grims; Here our path is of - ten dim;
- 2. Here our feet are of - ten wea - ry On the hills that throng our way;
- 3. Here our souls are of - ten fear - ful Of the pil - grim's lurk - ing foe;

But to cheer us on our jour-ney, Still we sing this way-side hymn:
Here the tem-pest dark-ly gath-ers, But our hearts with-in us say:
But the Lord is our de-fend-er, And He tells us we may know:

Refrain

Yon-der o-ver the roll-ing riv-er, Where the shin-ing man-sions rise,

Soon will be our homes for - ev - er, And the smile of the bless-ed Giv-er Glad-dens all our long-ing eyes.

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

Then little children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray for them.
 But the disciples rebuked those who brought them.
 Jesus said,
 "Let the little children come to me,
 and do not hinder them,
 for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest.
 Jesus, knowing their thoughts, took a little child and had him stand beside him.

Then he said to them,
 "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me;
 and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

For he who is least among you all—he is the greatest."

And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them,
Let us pass over unto the other side.

And when they had sent away the multitude,
they took him even as he was in the ship.

And there were also with him other little ships.

And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow:
and they awake him, and say unto him,

Master, carest thou not that we perish?

And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still.

And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

And he said unto them,

Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another,

What manner of man is this,

that even the wind and the sea obey him?

Great is the LORD, and most worthy of praise,
 in the city of our God, his holy mountain.
 It is beautiful in its loftiness,
 the joy of the whole earth.
 Within your temple, O God,
 we meditate on your unfailing love.
 Like your name, O God,
 your praise reaches to the ends of the earth;
 your right hand is filled with righteousness.
 Mount Zion rejoices,
 the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments.
 Walk about Zion, go around her, count her towers, consider well her ramparts, view her citadels,
 that you may tell of them to the next generation.
 For this God is our God for ever and ever;
 he will be our guide even to the end.

Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me. – Matthew 11: 29

1. I've found my Lord and He is mine, He won me by His love;
2. No oth-er Lord but Christ I know, I walk with Him a-lone;
3. He's dear-er to my heart than life, He found me lost in sin;
4. My flesh re-coiled be-fore the cross, And Sa-tan whis-pered there,
5. I've tried the road of sin and found Its pros-pects all de-ceive;

I'll serve Him all my years of time, And dwell with Him a-bove.
 His streams of love for-ev-er flow, With-in my heart, His throne.
 He calmed the sea of in-ward strife, And bid me come to Him.
 "Thy gain will not re-pay the loss, His yoke is hard to bear."
 I've proved the Lord and joys a-broad, More than I could be-lieve.

Sunlight

E♭/B♭

God is light; in Him there is no darkness. — 1 John 1:5-7

1. I wan-dered in the shades of night, Till Je-sus came to me,
2. Tho clouds may gath-er in the sky, And bil-lows round me roll,
3. I cross the wide ex-tend-ed fields, I jour-ney o'er the plain,
4. Soon I shall see Him as He is, The Light that came to me,

And with the sun-light of His love Bid all my dark-ness flee.
How-ev-er dark the world may be I've sun-light in my soul.
And in the sun-light of His love I reap the gold-en grain.
Be-hold the bright-ness of His face All thru e-ter-ni-ty.

Missions Medley

Medley Includes:
Ring Out the Message
Tell the Good News
Seeking the Lost

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.
 And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Matthew 28:18b-20

622 Ring Out the Message

E♭/E♭

For Christ died for your sins once for all. – 1 Peter 3:14-18

• 1. There's a mes - sage true and glad For the sin - ful and the sad, Ring it
 • 2. Tell the world of sav - ing grace, Make it known in ev - 'ry place
 • 3. Sin and doubt to sweep a - way, Till shall dawn the bet - ter day, out, Ring it out, ring it out; ring it out; It will give them cour - age new,

 Ring it out, ring it out; Help the need - y ones to know
 Till the sin - ful world be won

It will help them to be true; Ring it out, ring it out.
 Him from whom all bless - ings flow; Ring it out, ring it out.
 For Je - ho - vah's might - y Son; Ring it out, ring it out.

Standing Firm

649

Put on the full armor of God

so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes,
 you may be able to stand your ground.

Joy of the Redeemed

653

The desert and the parched land will be glad;
the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.
Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom;
it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;
they will see the glory of the LORD, the splendor of our God.
Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way;
say to those with fearful hearts,
"Be strong, do not fear; your God will come,
he will come with vengeance;
with divine retribution he will come to save you."
Then will the eyes of the blind be opened
and the ears of the deaf unstopped.
Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy.
Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

All to Jesus I Surrender

D/F#

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit... – Psalm 51:15-17

Duet

• 1. All to Je-sus I sur-ren-der, All to Him I free-ly give;
 2. All to Je-sus I sur-ren-der, Hum-bly at His feet I bow;
 3. All to Je-sus I sur-ren-der, Lord, I give my-self to Thee;

I will ev-er love and trust Him, In His pres-ence dai-ly live.
 World-ly pleas-ures all for-sak-en, Take me, Je-sus, take me now.
 Fill me with Thy love and pow-er, Let Thy bless-ing fall on me.

Refrain

I sur-ren-der all, I sur-ren-der all;
 I sur-ren-der all, I sur-ren-der all;
 All to Thee, my bless-ed Sav-ior, I sur-ren-der all.

Discipleship Medley

673

Medley Includes:I Have Decided to Follow JesusWherever He Leads I'll GoLiving for Jesus

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used
as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Then Jesus said to his disciples,
     “If anyone would come after me,
     he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.
 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it,
     but whoever loses his life for me will find it.
 What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul?
 Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?

A new command I give you:
     Love one another.
     As I have loved you, so you must love one another.
     By this all men will know that you are my disciples,
     if you love one another.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener.
 He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit,
     while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes
     so that it will be even more fruitful.
 You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you.
 Remain in me, and I will remain in you.
 No branch can bear fruit by itself;
     it must remain in the vine.
 Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

That Great Day

But the day of the Lord will come like a thief.
The heavens will disappear with a roar;
the elements will be destroyed by fire,
and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.
Since everything will be destroyed in this way,
what kind of people ought you to be?
You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming.

Our Heritage

733

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name.
 I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being,
 so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith.
 And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love,
 may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.
 Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us,
 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever!
 Amen.

Prayer Medley

Medley Includes:

Father, Hear the Prayer We Offer

Be with Me, Lord

I Love You, Lord

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone —for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

I want men everywhere to lift up holy hands in prayer, without anger or disputing.

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests.

With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints.

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ — to the glory and praise of God.

And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues

I tell you the truth,
they have received their reward in full.

When you pray, go into your room,

Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

See His Glory Medley

Medley Includes:
See His Glory
Revive Us, O Lord
Arise Shine
Shine Down

Arise, shine, for your light has come,
 and the glory of the LORD rises upon you.
 See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon you and his glory appears over you.
 Nations will come to your light,
 and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
 Lift up your eyes and look about you:
 All assemble and come to you; your sons come from afar,
 and your daughters are carried on the arm.
 Then you will look and be radiant,
 your heart will throb and swell with joy;
 the wealth on the seas will be brought to you,
 to you the riches of the nations will come.
 I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east.
 His voice was like the roar of rushing waters,

The whole earth is full of His glory. – Isaiah 6:3

See His glo - ry, see His glo - ry, See His glo - ry come down;

Praise His name, heav - en reigns, See His glo - ry come down.

The musical score is written for two staves (treble and bass clef) in D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. It features a melody with lyrics and a bass line. The first system covers the first line of lyrics, and the second system covers the second line. The melody is simple and repetitive, with a focus on the words 'See His glory'.

Intro:

"Jesus said, "You know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we don't know where You are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father but through Me" (John 14:4-6). Jesus knows the way, and He has come to lead us home."

Heaven Medley

Medley Includes:

I'll Fly Away

When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder

When We All Get to Heaven

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Trust in God; trust also in me.
In my Father’s house are many rooms;
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I am going there to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.
You know the way to the place where I am going.”

Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven,
not built by human hands.

Meanwhile we groan,
longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.

For while we are in this tent,
we groan and are burdened,
because we do not wish to be unclothed
but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

But in keeping with his promise
we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.

So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this,
make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him.

John 14:1-4

2 Corinthians 5:1-5

2 Peter 3:13-14

Medley Instructions: You may use selected readers for this lengthy passage. The last soprano note of #852 is the transition to the first soprano note of #853.

Home With My Father

856

There was a man who had two sons.
The younger one said to his father,
    "Father, give me my share of the estate."
So he divided his property between them.
The younger son set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living.
When he came to his senses, he said,
    "How many of my father's hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death!"
So he got up and went to his father.
But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him;
he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.
The father said to his servants,
    "Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him.
    Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet."

Gloryland

858

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city.
 On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month.
 And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.
 No longer will there be any curse.
 The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city,
 and his servants will serve him.
 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.
 There will be no more night.
 They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun,
 for the Lord God will give them light.
 And they will reign for ever and ever.
 The angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true.
 The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place."

 "Charles Gabriel was probably the greatest evangelistic gospel song writer of all time. His songs were in the forefront of the Sawdust Trails and Camp Meeting Days. This song was inspired by a friend who would rattle the rafters with his outbursts of 'Glory!' during prayers and sermons. He was nick-named 'Old Glory-face,' and he ended his prayers with 'and that will be glory for me!'"

 And night-ly to the lis-t'ning earth Re-peats the sto-ry of her birth;
 What tho no re-al voice nor sound A-mid their ra-diant orbs be found?

Th'un-wea-ried sun from day to day Does his Cre-a-tor's power dis-play, While all the stars that round her burn, And all the plan-ets in their turn,
 In rea-son's ear they all re-joice, And ut-ter forth a glo-rious voice,

And pub-lish-es to ev-'ry land The work of an al-might-y hand.
 Con-firm the ti-dings as they roll, And spread the truth from pole to pole.

883 Treasures of Heaven Medley

Medley Includes:

Earth Holds No Treasures How Beautiful Heaven Must Be On Jordan's Stormy Banks

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth,
where moth and rust destroy,
and where thieves break in and steal.

But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven,
where moth and rust do not destroy,
and where thieves do not break in and steal.

For where your treasure is,
there your heart will be also.

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth,
for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away,
and there was no longer any sea.

I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Now the dwelling of God is with men,
and he will live with them.

They will be his people,
and God himself will be with them and be their God.
He will wipe every tear from their eyes.

There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

He who was seated on the throne said,
“I am making everything new!”

The wall was made of jasper,
and the city of pure gold,
as pure as glass.

The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light,
and the Lamb is its lamp.

Nothing impure will ever enter it,
nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The musical score for the Refrain is written for two voices (Soprano and Bass) and piano accompaniment. It consists of six systems of music. The first system is the start of the refrain, marked 'Refrain'. The lyrics are: 'There will be peace in the val - ley for me some day;'. The second system continues the melody: 'There will be peace in the val - ley for me, oh, Lord, I pray;'. The third system continues: 'There'll be no sad-ness, no sor-row, no trou-ble I'll no sor-row, oh, my Lord no trou-ble, trou-ble I'll'. The fourth system continues: 'see; There will be peace in the val - ley for me. for me.'. The fifth and sixth systems complete the refrain with piano accompaniment.

901 Our Savior's Blood Medley

Medley Includes:
Nothing But the Blood
There Is Power in the Blood
Have You Been to Jesus?

Just as man is destined to die once,
 and after that to face judgment,
 so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people;
 and he will appear a second time,
 not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

914 His Cleansing Power

At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures.
We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another.
But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy.
He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace,
we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,

"Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor?
It was worth a year's wages."

"Leave her alone," Jesus replied.

"It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.
You will always have the poor among you,
but you will not always have me."

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major, 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system has two staves (Soprano/Alto and Tenor/Bass) with lyrics: 'I will give you rest, I am meek and'. The second system also has two staves with lyrics: 'I will give you rest, I am meek and'. The third system has two staves with lyrics: 'low - ly in heart: and ye shall find rest un - to your souls.' and 'low - ly in heart: and ye shall find rest un - to your souls.'. The score includes dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'Rit.' (Ritardando), and a repeat sign with a second ending.

Eyes That See the Unseen 933

We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed;
perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned;
struck down, but not destroyed.

It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken."

With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you in his presence.

All this is for your benefit,
so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

Therefore we do not lose heart.

Though outwardly we are wasting away,
yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day.

For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.

So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen.

For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures.

He told them,

"This is what is written:
The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
You are witnesses of these things."

He said to them,

941 The Savior's Love Medley

Medley Includes:

Tell Me the Old, Old Story

Do You Know My Jesus?

What Shall It Be?

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

So Pilate asked Jesus,

“Are you the king of the Jews?”

“Yes, it is as you say,” Jesus replied.

Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd,

“I find no basis for a charge against this man.”

Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate appealed to them again.

But they kept shouting,

“Crucify him! Crucify him!”

Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed.

When they came to the place called The Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left.

Jesus said,

“Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.”

The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him.

They said, “He saved others;

let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.”

There was a written notice above him, which read:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him:

“Aren’t you the Christ? Save yourself and us!”

But the other criminal rebuked him.

“Don’t you fear God,” he said, “since you are under the same sentence?

We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve.

But this man has done nothing wrong.”

Then he said,

“Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

Jesus answered him,

“I tell you the truth,

today you will be with me in paradise.”

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this:

While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Medley Includes:

God Put a Rainbow in the Cloud
The Walls Came Tumbling Down
O Happy Day

To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (•).

He spreads out the northern skies over empty space;
 he suspends the earth over nothing.
 He wraps up the waters in his clouds,
 yet the clouds do not burst under their weight.
 He covers the face of the full moon, spreading his clouds over it.
 He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters for a boundary between light and darkness.
 The pillars of the heavens quake, aghast at his rebuke.
 And these are but the outer fringe of his works;
 how faint the whisper we hear of him!
 Who then can understand the thunder of his power?

SEGUE TO "O HAPPY DAY"

And the Walls Came Down 955

Then the LORD said to Joshua,
 "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands,
 along with its king and its fighting men.
 March around the city once with all the armed men.
 Do this for six days.
 Have seven priests carry trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark.
 On the seventh day, march around the city seven times,
 with the priests blowing the trumpets.
 When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout;
 then the wall of the city will collapse and the people will go up, every man straight in."
 When the trumpets sounded,
 the people shouted,
 and at the sound of the trumpet,
 when the people gave a loud shout,
 the wall collapsed;
 so every man charged straight in,
 and they took the city.

On the Banks of Jordan 964

So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.
 Now the Jordan is at flood stage all during harvest.
 Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water's edge,
 the water from upstream stopped flowing.
 It piled up in a heap a great distance away,
 at a town called Adam in the vicinity of Zarethan, while the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) was completely cut off.
 So the people crossed over opposite Jericho.
 The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

Going Home Medley

Medley Includes:

*Oh, They Tell Me of a Home
Don't You Want to Go to That Land
I'm Gonna View That Holy City*

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Now Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law,
"We are setting out for the place about which the LORD said,
'I will give it to you.'
Come with us and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

For if Joshua had given them rest,
God would not have spoken later about another day.
There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God;
for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from his own work,
just as God did from his.
Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience.

More Than Conquerors

978

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness.

We do not know what we ought to pray for,
 but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express.

And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will.

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

The Coming Hour

982

I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life
and will not be condemned;
he has crossed over from death to life.

I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live.

For as the Father has life in himself,
so he has granted the Son to have life in himself.

And he has given him authority to judge because he is the Son of Man.

Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and come out—those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.

Creation Medley

Medley Includes:

This Is My Father's World

Can You Count the Stars?

What a Mighty God We Serve

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation?

Tell me, if you understand.

Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know!

Who stretched a measuring line across it?

On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone—while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy?

Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb, when I made the clouds its garment and wrapped it in thick darkness, when I fixed limits for it and set its doors and bars in place, when I said, "This far you may come and no farther;

here is where your proud waves halt"?

Have you ever given orders to the morning, or shown the dawn its place, that it might take the earth by the edges and shake the wicked out of it?

The earth takes shape like clay under a seal;

its features stand out like those of a garment.

Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Have the gates of death been shown to you?

Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail, which I reserve for times of trouble, for days of war and battle?

What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth?

Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain,

and a path for the thunderstorm to water a land where no man lives,

a desert with no one in it to satisfy a desolate wasteland

Does the rain have a father? Who fathers the drops of dew?

From whose womb comes the ice?

Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens

when the waters become hard as stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen?

Can you bind the beautiful Pleiades? Can you loose the cords of Orion?

Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons or lead out the Bear with its cubs?

Do you know the laws of the heavens?

Can you set up God's dominion over the earth?

The Voice of the Lord 994

The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders,
the LORD thunders over the mighty waters.

The voice of the LORD is powerful;
the voice of the LORD is majestic.

The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf.

The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.

The voice of the LORD shakes the desert.

995 It Came upon the Midnight Clear

Bb/F

Do not be afraid. I bring you good news. — Luke 2:8-14

1. It came up-on the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old,
 2. Still thru the clo-ven skies they come With peace-ful wings un-furled,
 3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife The world has suf-fered long;
 4. For lo! the days are has-t'ning on, By proph-ets seen of old,

From an-gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
 And still their heav'n-ly mu-sic floats O'er all the wea-ry world;
 Be-neath the an-gel-strain have rolled Two thou-sand years of wrong;
 When with the ev-er-cir-cling years, Shall come the time fore-told,

"Peace on the earth, good-will to men, From heav'n's all gra-cious King;"
 A-bove its sad and low-ly plains They bend on hov-'ring wing,
 And men, at war with men, hear not The love-song which they bring:
 When the whole heav'n and earth shall own The Prince of Peace their King,

The world in sol-emn still-ness lay To hear the an-gels sing.
 And ev-er, o'er its Ba-bel sounds, The bless-ed an-gels sing.
 O hush the noise, ye men of strife, And hear the an-gels sing.
 And the whole world send back the song Which now the an-gels sing.

Silent Night! Holy Night!*

*To facilitate an uninterrupted flow from stanza to stanza when used as a medley, the suggested stanzas have been marked (*).*

But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah,
out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel.

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world.

(This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.)

And everyone went to his own town to register.

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David,
because he belonged to the house and line of David.

He went there to register with Mary,
who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child.

While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born,
and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son.

She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger,
because there was no room for them in the inn.

An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

But the angel said to them,

“Do not be afraid.

I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you;
he is Christ the Lord.

This will be a sign to you:

You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.”

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests.”

"In the summer of 1893, Katherine Bates travelled from the Northeast to the Colorado Rockies. Atop Pikes Peak she found the inspiration to write the words to this patriotic hymn. Herein she captures the beauty of our land – spacious skies, fields of amber grain, alabaster cities, purple mountains and fruited plains – the land where pioneers blazed frontier trails and had visions beyond their years. This has become one of America's most beloved patriotic songs. May the patriot's dream never die!"

Mighty Warrior

Do not be afraid.

Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today.

The Egyptians you see today you will never see again.

The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still.

Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere;

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.

For the LORD God is a sun and shield;

the LORD bestows favor and honor;

no good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless.

O LORD Almighty, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does.

The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world.

On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds.

We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

How to Lead an Antiphonal Song

by Reid Lancaster

Antiphonal singing is singing in which two groups alternately sing different sections of a musical work. You can divide the congregation into two halves or you and the congregation can sing to each other. This could be what Paul had in mind in Colossians 3:16. Jewish worship utilized antiphonal singing in the temple and other worship events and most probably was carried over into the Christian church (see Nehemiah 12:31–43 and Ezra 3:10–11). Several of David's psalms were written for antiphonal singing.

Responsive singing is a variation of antiphonal singing in which a leader or a group sings a statement or question to which another group responds. Psalm 136 is a good example of responsive singing. In this psalm the leader sings a praising phrase and the congregation sings back "His love endures forever."

Your chief reason for being a worship leader is to help the congregation have a worshipful experience. Antiphonal singing is one way to do this. Here are some practical steps in leading antiphonal songs:

1. Teach your church the concept of antiphonal singing.

The congregation must be taught the concept before proceeding. Explain the idea of antiphonal singing clearly and succinctly. Teach them the word antiphonal so that when you wish to use the method, they will know exactly what you mean. There is clear biblical precedent for antiphonal singing, so make your explanation strong and positive. Here is a sample introduction to use when introducing antiphonal singing to your congregation: "We will now sing number 330 as an antiphonal song. Antiphonal singing was used in Jewish and early Christian worship when groups of singers took turns singing to each other. In this song, this side (use your arms to mark off the first group) will sing first and this side (mark off the second group) will sing next. I will direct you as you take turns singing to each other."

When singing a responsive song, you will sing a statement and the congregation will respond by singing after you. A good example of this kind of song is "Nothing But the Blood of Jesus." The leader sings, "What can wash away my sin?" and the congregation responds, "Nothing but the blood of Jesus." Here is a sample introduction to this song: "We will now sing number 902 as a responsive song. I will sing the question and you will respond by singing the answer."

2. Be a confident leader.

When the people are led by a strong, confident leader, they are not afraid to undertake a new adventure. If you are timid and unsure, the people's focus will be on you and not God. Before you stand before the congregation, spend plenty of time preparing the mechanics and praying for God's guidance. Preparation and prayer make a confident leader.

3. Help each group sing their part.

When you divide the congregation into two groups, use your outstretched arms to embrace each group, and tell them which group sings first and which sings second. As you direct the song, use your arms to embrace each group so that it will be obvious who is singing and who is listening. At the end of the song you may want everyone to sing. Motion with your arms to embrace the whole congregation to show them that all are to sing. Allow yourself total physical freedom to help each group sing: get your hands free (put down the microphone or the hymnal), get visible (stand away from the podium if it is in the way), and make yourself heard (use a clip-on mic or a mic on a stand).

Some songs lend themselves to groups that cannot be defined by locale. For instance, you may divide your congregation into other kinds of groups: men/women, children/adults, teachers/students, elders-deacons/congregation, youth/sponsors. These groups are a little harder to guide, but using such groups can lead to a very meaningful experience. In some cases, you may need to rehearse with the groups before the worship time. A good song for this kind of worship experience is "Jesus Loves Me." The children of the congregation could sing verse one in their childlike innocence, then the adults could sing the penetrating commitment found in verse three to the children.

When you are leading a responsive song, help the congregation know exactly what to do. When you are singing, don't direct, or it will send a confusing message to the congregation. When the church is to sing, you should direct and not sing, but mouth the words. Use your body language to help the congregation know exactly what is expected of them. For instance, with "Nothing but the Blood of Jesus," hold your palms up and your arms out to your sides when you sing, "What can wash away my sin?" Then direct the congregation in singing "Nothing but the blood of Jesus." On the last verse, touch your chest with your fingertips while you sing, "Naught of good that I have done." Your actions make it clear that you alone sing that part.

Antiphonal singing can be a great way for your congregation to encourage each other and testify to God's majesty.

How to Lead a Round

by Reid Lancaster

A round is a simple song, often sung in unison (without harmony), which is repeated several times and constructed so that different singers begin at different times during the song with a harmonious sound resulting. In a spiritual setting, the idea of a round could be (1) to symbolize the unity among the diversity of the congregation, or (2) to depict the sense of multitudes involved in worship. A round can be either upbeat and joyous like "Rejoice in the Lord Always" or slow and ethereal like "Father, We Adore Thee." Either way, the result can be very meaningful to the worshipers. Here is a suggested procedure for leading a round that might prove helpful as you lead your congregation in worship.

1. Know the song well.

Know the song inside and out, so that you can jump in at any time and help a group stay on track.

2. Teach the song to your church first without the round feature.

It may be that you will not try the round feature the first time you introduce the song. Give the church time to feel comfortable with the song before you ask them to sing it as a round.

3. Divide the congregation into groups.

If you are a novice at rounds, I suggest using only two groups the first few times. You can work up to three or more groups after you have some experience under your belt. The configuration of the auditorium may also have a great deal to do with how you divide the congregation. If there is a center aisle between two rows of pews, the division will be obvious. If there are three sections, you may need to divide into three parts. However you divide the groups, make sure each group has plenty of strong voices. For instance, if your pews are divided into three sections and one section is made up of people who are not motivated to sing strongly, then group them with another section and do a two-part round. On the other hand, it may be that the song dictates the number of groups you need. "Rejoice in the Lord Always" can be sung with two or more groups, while "Father, We Adore Thee" needs three.

Always keep your instructions to a minimum, but explain the setup clearly and precisely. Practice your instructions before you come in front of the congregation. Put your hymnal down (you will need both hands to lead the round) and step away from the podium if you need to. Use both arms to embrace each section as you talk them through the instructions.

Tell the congregation which group starts and which group goes next. Tell them how many times to sing the song, then tell them how to end. Here's a possible explanation for a round: "Today we will sing #324 as a round. This group will sing first (use your arms to show the boundaries of the group), this group will sing next (use your arms again), and this group will sing last. Sing the song three times, then end by all repeating the last phrase."

5. Help each group get started.

Using your arms to designate which group is to sing, start singing with the first group. When it's time for the next group to start, turn to them, using your arms to get them started. You, as the leader, will sing the first part of the round over and over as you help each group with their entrance. As you get back to the first group again, hold up two fingers to let them know this is the second time through the song. Show your finger indicators to each group so they will know where they are in the song.

You may want to end the song with everyone singing. In the preceding suggested explanation, you instructed everyone to end repeating the last phrase. As the first group ends, use your arms to embrace both the first and second groups in singing the last phrase. Finally, use your arms to embrace the entire congregation, indicating that all three groups are to sing the last phrase. It may be that you will want to lead the last phrase one or two extra times, depending on the song and the mood. To help them know the final ending, you may ritard to the end and hold out the last note.

Glossary

Accent (<) - emphasis on one pitch or chord.

Alto - the deeper of the two main divisions of the female voice; in hymn singing, the alto sings the lower notes of the treble staff.

Antiphonal singing - a responsive style of singing by two groups. (See #538 "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less.")

Barline - a line drawn vertically through one or more staves to mark off a measure.

Bass - the lowest male voice; in hymn singing, the bass sings the lowest notes on the bass staff.

Bass clef - sign placed at the beginning of a staff to indicate the position of some particular pitch for tenor and bass parts. (Also called the F clef and is normally used with its beginning point anchored on the f line of the staff.)

Chant - a simple melody using a single pitch or a limited range of notes repetitively; usually without other vocal accompaniment and without meter.

Compound meter - meter in which the basic beat may be sub-divided into three sub-beats. For example: 6/8 time, which is directed in two beats per measure but contains two groups of three sub-beats. Simple meters like 4/4, 3/4, 2/4, 2/2 contain no such sub-beats. Compound duple meters (6/4, 6/8, 6/16) have two beats per measure, compound triple meters (9/4, 9/8, 9/16) have three beats per measure, and compound quadruple meters (12/4, 12/8, 12/16) have four beats per measure.

Crescendo (cresc.) - becoming louder; also may be indicated with a sign.

Cut time - 2/2 time; the equivalent of two half notes in each measure with the half note receiving one beat; implication is of a faster tempo than 4/4.

D.C. (da capo) - "from the beginning," hence an indication that a piece is to be repeated from the beginning to the end (Fine).

D.S. (da segno) - "from the sign," an indication that a piece is to be repeated from the place marked with a sign (♯) to the end (Fine).

Decrescendo (decresc.) - becoming softer; also may be indicated with a sign.

Descant - in hymn singing, an optional countermelody lying above the melody. (See #47, "Holy, Holy, Holy.")

Dotted note (♩. ♪. ♪. ○. ) - dot receives half the value of the note that precedes it (a dot after the note increases its duration by 50%).

1057 - GLOSSARY

Double flat (bb) - lowers a pitch by one step.

Double sharp (*) - raises a pitch by one step.

Duet - a song, or part of a song, to be sung by two voices; may be accompanied by other voices in the background. (See #501 "Though Your Sins Be As Scarlet" or #595 "I Come to the Garden Alone.")

Eighth rest (⌞) - half the duration of a quarter rest, twice the duration of a sixteenth rest (see Table 2).

Fermata (⤿) - symbol placed over or under a note or rest to indicate that it is to be prolonged beyond its normal duration at the leader's discretion.

Fine - the end of the composition.

Flat (b) - indicates the lowering of the pitch of a note by one-half step.

Forte (f) - loud.

Fortissimo (ff) - very loud.

Half rest (⌞) - half the duration of a whole rest, twice the duration of a quarter rest (see Table 2).

Key signature - the series of flats or sharps at the beginning of section of music to indicate the tonality of that section. The key is named by the first degree of the scale of that key (see Table 3).

Legato - smoothly, without pause between notes. (See #813 "Jesus, Meek and Gentle.")

Marcato - with directness and emphasis; like a march. (See #646 "Onward, Christian Soldiers.")

Medley - songs sung in sequence with theme and/or style as a common thread.

Meter (musical) - the basic beat scheme of a song indicated by the time signature (see time signature).

Meter (poetic) - used in English hymn verse. Classified as iambic, trochaic or dactylic. The figures shown at the lower right of each hymn in this hymnal indicates the number of syllables in each line of poetry. This is a common practice in hymn singing which allows the interchanging of hymn tunes with the same poetic meter (see hymn tunes and Tune Names).

Metronome marking - indicates the suggested tempo of a song; stated as the beat note equalling the number of beats per minute. Example: ♩ = ca. 120 (ca. means approximately).

Mezzo forte (mf) - moderately loud.

Mezzo piano (mp) - moderately soft.

Natural sign (♮) - the accidental sign, used to cancel a previous sharp or flat for the measure only, unless tied.

Optional ending - several measures of music at the end of a selection to be sung at the leader's discretion. (See #4 "To God Be the Glory.")

Pensive - to weigh, to consider.

Piano (p) - soft.

Pianissimo (pp) - very soft.

Quarter rest (♩) - half the duration of a half rest, twice the duration of an eighth rest (see Table 2).

Rallentando (rall.) - slowing down.

Repeat sign (||: :||) - to sing a section again, used to mark the beginning and end respectively. In the absence of a sign like the first, the repeat is from the beginning of the work or movement. Unless otherwise indicated, these symbols call for single repeat. If the first and second statements of the section have different endings, these are identified by numbers.

Responsive singing - the musical reply by the congregation to what is sung by the leader. (See #902 "Nothing But the Blood.")

The image shows a musical score with two staves, treble and bass, and a key signature of one sharp. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics are 'Praise God, from whom all bless - ings flow; Praise Him, all crea - tures here be - low;'. The music consists of quarter and eighth notes.

Sharp (#) - indicates the raising of the pitch of a note by one-half step.

1059 - GLOSSARY

Sixteenth note (♯) - half the duration of an eighth note, twice the duration of a thirty-second note (see Table 1).

Sixteenth rest (♯) - half the duration of an eighth rest, twice the duration of a thirty-second rest (see Table 2).

Slur - A curved line placed above or below two or more notes of different pitch to indicate that they are to be performed legato (without pause).

Solo - a song, or part of a song, to be sung by one voice; may be accompanied by other voices in the background. (See #591 "Who Can Satisfy My Soul Like You?" or #686 "I Don't Want to Move.")

Soprano - the highest class of the human voice; in hymn singing, the soprano sings the top notes of the treble staff.

Staccato - Opposite of legato; detached and clearly separated from the note following. (See #831 "Let Me Live.")

Tenor - the highest natural male voice; in hymn singing, the tenor sings the top notes of the bass staff.

Tie - a curved line joining two successive notes of the same pitch, indicating that the second note is to be connected to the first, making the duration of the tone their combined value.

Time signature - two numbers, one above the other, positioned at the beginning of a measure or series of measures to indicate the basic meter to follow. The lower number shows the basic unit of note duration and the upper shows the number of those units in each measure. For example, in 3/4 time, the quarter note is the basic unit of duration with the equivalent of three quarter notes in each measure.

Treble clef (♩) - sign placed at the beginning of a staff to indicate the position of some particular pitch for soprano and alto parts (Also called the G clef and is normally used, its tail encircling the g line of the staff.)

Trio - a song, or part of a song, to be sung by three voices; may be accompanied by other voices in the background. (See #565 "Sweeter as the Years Go By.")

Triplet - notates a triple rhythm in a duple time signature.

Tune name - a title given to the musical portion of a hymn. Early hymnals often contained no music, but indicated the possible tunes to which a set of lyrics could be sung.

Unison - all parts singing tones of the same letter name; same pitch or octave(s) apart. (See #537 "Here We Are But Straying Pilgrims.")

• Tune Names and Meter Notations

Tune names and meters are noted at the lower right corner of each song. This notation allows for the interchanging of music and lyrics of compatible songs.

Tune names are usually chosen by the composer. In cases where the composer did not name the tune, a name was assigned by the hymnal editor. The tune names are also listed in the "Alphabetical Index of Tunes." As you browse through the index, you will note that several tune names have listed beside them more than one hymn number. For instance, the tune named Maryton can be sung to three sets of lyrics in this hymnal: "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee," "Come, Holy Spirit, Dove Divine," and "Jesus, Thou Joy of Loving Hearts." This allows the congregation the opportunity to sing three different sets of lyrics without having to learn new music.

Meter notations designate the number of syllables in each "poetic" line of the hymn. In the example cited above, the three hymns all have eight syllables per line. Since the tune Maryton has eight notes in each of its musical phrases, the poetry and the music match. In theory, any poem with four lines of eight syllables can be sung to the tune Maryton, which has four musical phrases of eight notes each. Using the "Metrical Index of Tunes" on pages 1073–1076 will provide many opportunities for creativity in using this music/lyric exchange concept.

With this in mind, the director can ideally interchange the lyrics and the tunes of songs with the same meter. Due to the unique nature of music, this doesn't always work perfectly, but with some creativity, interesting matches can be found.

Some meters are more common than others, and names for these common meters have evolved. The meter 8.6.8.6. is known as Common Meter; Short Meter is 6.6.8.6.; Long Meter is 8.8.8.8. The use of the word double (abbreviated D) means the meter is repeated, making the meter twice as long. For instance 8.6.8.6.D is actually 8.6.8.6.8.6.8.6. The addition of a refrain rather complicates the issue because meters in refrains seldom match each other; songs with refrains are noted "w/refrain." When matching poetry with tunes that have refrains, be sure the thematic content of the refrain is compatible with the new lyrics, because the refrains usually cannot be interchanged.

• Author, Composer, Arranger, and Dates of Creation

To the lower left of each song, the author, composer, and arranger are named. The author is the one who wrote the words, the composer put the words to music, and the arranger created this specific arrangement. The date with each name is the date the work was created. The author's, composer's, and arranger's birth and death years are noted in the "Index of Authors, Composers, Arrangers, and Sources of Hymns" on pages 1063–1067.

• Expanded Arrangements of Songs with Limited Voicings

Some will want to use a fuller sound behind some of the duets and solos in the hymnal. Expanded arrangements of these songs are included in the section beginning on page 1031. Reference is made to these arrangements as they appear in the body of the hymnal. For example, "I Come to the Garden Alone" (#595) is seen in an expanded version on page 1042.

Leading Worship

by Jeff Nelson

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. (Matthew 22:37–38)

Loving God is the number one priority of the church and of each individual believer, and worship is the expression of that love.

While God allows the creative spirit in each of us to express our love for him through worship in our own unique way, he has established specific principles for our worship.

One of the most beautiful expressions of the process of worship is found in the Old Testament.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place. I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be there. (2 Chronicles 7:14–16)

A Guideline for Worship

If we will use this text as a guideline for worship, we will never wonder why worship isn't meaningful or why God doesn't do anything. Let's look at this progression of how God deals with his people and their response to him.

1. "If my people, who are called by my name"

This identifies who we are. We must approach worship knowing who we are and whose we are. God has laid his claim on our lives, and we now wear his name. We are the set-apart people, the God-fearing Christians under the lordship of Jesus Christ. We want to be known by no other name but his.

2. "Will humble themselves"

Trying to enter worship with a heart full of pride is a sure way to fail. No worship will travel to God nor will God speak to us in worship, unless the worshiper's heart is in a humble state.

3. "And pray"

God deeply desires a relationship with his people, and prayer is the language of communication with God. The prayer of a heart full of pride goes no farther than the ceiling, but the prayer of a humble heart echoes through the chambers of God's heart for eternity.

4. "And seek my face"

This is the most revealing aspect of God's desire for our worship. He doesn't say, "Seek my hands" or "Seek my heart" or "Seek my feet as you bow before me." He says, "Seek my face. Look me in the eye. Get in my face so we can see each other." He wants intimate worship. He wants eye contact. And you know, when looking eye to eye, you cannot tell a lie. "Draw near to God and he will draw near to you" (James 4:8). He wants your complete attention when you are involved in worshipping him.

5. “And turn from their wicked ways”

Worship offers the transforming power of changing something from the way it is to the way it should be. As we’re in the midst of face-to-face worship, he asks us to turn, to repent, to confess, to allow the evil in our lives to be changed by him for something he can make good. We cannot experience life-changing worship and continue to live a wicked lifestyle. Turning is mandatory for the next step.

6. “Then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin”

What a cleansing thought. When we accept his prescription for dealing with sin, forgiveness is the natural result following confession and repentance. What better state to live in than forgiven! But wait, there’s more.

7. “And will heal their land”

Does this mean if the ground is not fruitful, God will instantly supply the missing nutrients? I think not. But I do believe he means that in time that which needs healing will be healed. Our tendency is to rush to the healing part every time the clock strikes “worship,” but God knows that for our own good we mustn’t jump to the “pot of gold” without first experiencing the rain and the rainbow. We must allow his journey to unfold. We must join him and find ourselves different, more pure, more like Jesus—healed, after being lost in him. A promise of healing is there for every believer when his blueprint for worship is followed. Wow!

8. “Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place”

I wonder if we sometimes have such a ritualistic approach to worship and such a pious perception of our “doctrinal accuracy” that we actually offer a “freeze-dried” worship service to God—a worship that we have decided is just right, so we package it, market it, and never change it. Such worship will be met with closed eyes and ears. My prayer is that our worship will invigorate our spirits so that the eyes and ears of God are opened wider than ever. What a comforting thought to know that his eyes and ears are attentive to our songs and prayers. Likewise, our songs and prayers must be attentive to him.

9. “I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there forever”

How many idols that crowd out his Name do we drag into worship? Is Theism replaced by Materialism, Me-ism, Traditionalism etc.? If we listen to our worship, we may hear several names exalted before his. Pray for his name to be so highly revered that all others are checked at the door and forgotten once his name is lifted front and center. We must place him at the highest place.

10. “My eyes and my heart will always be there”

There aren’t many constants in this life. But one thing we can know, “The Lord is in his holy temple.” No evil force or act of congress can remove him. Even more exciting—my body is his temple. This means that the eyes and heart of God take up residence in my heart. This guideline is not only a foundation for corporate worship, but also for the worship that daily occupies my heart! And the church offers a resounding, “Amen!”

○ The Worship Leader—Called to Lead Worship

As a worship leader, your desire to worship God must be top priority. God created us that we should be “to the praise of his glory” (Ephesians 1:6, 12, 14). It all begins with a heart that is devoted to God and a calling by God of one who is gifted to lead worship. Creativity and inspiration come from a heart that is lived directed toward God. As a worship leader, how can you best lead others in worship?

1. Teach the power of corporate worship.

The worship leader is responsible for teaching the congregation the power of corporate worship and leading them into the presence of God. Worship is not a spectator event. Everyone is to participate. We as a group are presenting our worship to an audience of one—God!

2. Lead people to his throne.

Worship leading is an awesome responsibility. Worship leaders are responsible to lead people to his throne, releasing them to praise him. We must live a life of holiness. “Lord, who may dwell in your sanctuary? Who may live on your holy hill? He whose walk is blameless and who does what is righteous” (Psalm 15:1–2). We cannot be perfect, but we can be blameless through Jesus Christ’s redeeming blood.

3. Be enthusiastic.

A worship leader should be enthusiastic about leading people into the presence of the Almighty, without seeking glory for himself. The attitude of the worship leader should be positive. Smile. Speak and sing loudly and clearly. Be in charge, but not forceful. Your leadership should ultimately come from your example. Others won’t follow unless you are actively involved. Be an encourager, not a “scolder.” Say a few words at the beginning to encourage the church and build a rapport with them, but don’t say too much. You do not want to break the continuity or progression of worship. Speak only when something needs to be said. Pray that God will give you words when it is time to speak and spiritual discernment when it is time to be silent.

4. Lead by worshiping.

Your face and posture should reflect the glory of God and his joy in receiving our worship. Come before God with a joyful and thankful heart. “Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise” (Psalm 100:4). The best way to lead in worship is to worship. The worship leader should first and foremost be a worshiper. You should model a lifestyle of worship so your leadership has spiritual credibility.

5. Know your theology of worship.

A worship leader should be spiritually prepared. Time spent in God’s Word should be a major part of your life. Good leaders are learners; as a leader learns, he can share jewels of discovery with the church he is leading. Many wonderful books have been devoted to the topic of worship theology. Dig in and drink deeply. Be prepared to give answers. Take ownership of your studied theology. Then you will be trustworthy. A theology of worship should be taught to and owned by the church so that you and the congregation make the journey of worship together. If you don’t journey together, the church may splinter into kicking and screaming segments, and that is not God-honoring.

6. Prepare in prayer.

Seek God specifically for each assembly and ask for his direction. Prepare yourself in his presence by spending time with him before the service. It is more important to prepare yourself than to prepare a song service. Ask God to reveal new depths of his presence to you, for you can never take the people you’re leading any deeper than you are. As a leader you must place prayer as a high priority. Confession needs to be a regular prayer agenda item so that you will lead from a pure heart. Prayer for the worship service is also extremely important. You can feel confident when leading an assembly bathed in prayer. Pray with those who will participate in the service that God will touch each individual heart as his presence is entered.

7. Yield to the Holy Spirit.

A worship leader should be well prepared but also sensitive to the Holy Spirit, because sometimes listening and following his direction may change what has been planned. People cannot be pushed or coaxed into worship. They must be led or drawn in. Sometimes what you have prepared will need to take a backseat to the felt needs of the moment.

8. Maintain a right relationship with God.

The worship leader must maintain an awe of God, ascribing his majesty and greatness. “Who among the gods is like you, O Lord? Who is like you—majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders?” (Exodus 15:11). Let the awesome power of God flow through you as you lead worshipers into his presence.

Your relationship with God and others must be in order and your conscience clear. “Let us draw near to God with a sincere heart . . . having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience” (Heb. 10:22).

9. Have a heart for God.

A worship leader does not have to be incredibly talented. Rather he needs to be a strong leader and have a heart after God. If a man prepares his heart, God will speak and sing through him. The attitude of worship and the desire to glorify the Lord will communicate more effectively than a good voice.

The Worship Team

In developing a worship or praise team, make sure each member has a heart for worship. Good voices are important, and the ability to sing harmony is necessary, but a heart for God is essential. This team should meet regularly to pray, worship, and learn new songs.

A worship team must be just that—a team. Leading worship as a group requires clear communication among group members. Simple hand signals can inform the team where the leader is going. For instance, one finger could mean “go back to the beginning”; two fingers could mean “repeat the chorus”; three fingers, “go to the end or finish the song”; and a closed fist, “add the additional or tag ending.” A “thumbs up” can mean go up a half step. Any hand signals are appropriate as long as the group knows their meaning. The more time the team spends together, the more natural the communication will become—both physically and spiritually.

The Worship Planning Committee

The worship planning committee helps in the direction, planning, and implementation of worship. The following are some principles for establishing and maintaining an effective worship planning committee.

1. Consider the team composition.

Planning teams may be constructed in various ways. Some teams are composed chiefly of church staff members. Staff members are usually knowledgeable and available, but may not always represent the entire congregation. Other teams are composed of a cross section of the congregation and are thus in touch with the felt needs of the whole church. It is best to include men, women, teachers, ministers, young, and old in the group to allow variety and creativity.

2. Meet regularly.

The planning team should meet regularly to pray, share ideas, and plan worship times for the church. They can explore the use of available resources and brainstorm numerous possibilities of presentation. Topics for upcoming assemblies and series should be brought to this group well in advance so there is time for individual consideration as well as group discussion.

3. Plan worship—not just assemblies.

The planning team must always remember that they are planning more than assemblies; they are planning assemblies to worship. They mustn't view each assembly as a list of activities, but as a holy encounter with a Holy God.

4. Assemble resource notebooks.

Resource notebooks for each member of the planning team and worship leader will prove invaluable. These notebooks could include:

1. Worship calendars
2. Worship themes and sermon topics
3. Worship planning sheets
4. Sample orders of worship
5. Calls to worship
6. Extensive song lists and dates songs are used
7. Worship and music resources
8. Hymn and chorus medleys
9. Worship articles, etc.

5. Evaluate and improve.

Evaluations are necessary for improvement and growth. The worship planning team can evaluate as they do more planning, or a separate group can evaluate all the aspects and environment of the assembly.

Practical Steps to Planning a Worship Period

1. Have a planning session with the speaker.

Do this well in advance of each service. If the speaker is planning a series with a theme, discuss the entire series and lay out a basic road map to establish the desired goals and objectives. Immediately write down any ideas or songs that come to mind. Allow yourself plenty of time to plan, and involve others. Pray together.

2. Know your own "theology of worship."

Plan the worship to reflect and be consistent with your theology.

3. Pray.

Ask God's blessing and wisdom as you plan a meaningful time of worship.

4. Read the text to be used by the speaker.

Also go over any notes you have taken from previous meetings. Use both of these to set a direction for each assembly you plan.

5. Choose a theme, if appropriate.

Look for words and themes that stand out in the text or notes. Once a theme is determined, all elements of the assembly should relate to that theme.

6. Title the assembly.
A title will keep you on track as to the theme you are planning for the worship period and will communicate the direction of the assembly to the church
7. Decide which activities should be included.
Make this decision based on how best to carry out the theme. Keep a list of all the worship activities you have used and add to the list as new ways are discovered to make worship more meaningful.
8. Determine the flow of the assembly.
Arrange fast, medium, and slow songs in the order that best achieves the desired result. Following are two examples:
  - a. A Pattern Following Isaiah 6
    - Begin in praise. (Isaiah sees God and praises him.)
    - Move to confession. (Isaiah confesses he is unclean.)
    - Respond with thanksgiving. (Isaiah is cleansed with coals and he is grateful.)
    - Build to commitment. (Isaiah was willing to be sent.)
  - b. A General Pattern
    - Center gathering or entering time on praise and thanksgiving (songs such as “I Will Enter His Gates”).
    - Transition into slower worship songs (songs such as “I Exalt Thee”).
    - Enter into deeper worship where the atmosphere is more meditative and intimate (songs such as “Holy, Holy, Holy” and “I Love You Lord”).
    - Come back to a more joyful time so the worshipers are not left with a “heavy feeling” (songs such as “In Moments Like These”).
9. List all possible songs.
Put them in an order that compliments the flow of the assembly or tells a narrative that you want to communicate.
10. Choose the most meaningful order.
Arrange such activities as the sermon, Communion, special readings, etc. in the order best suited for the specific assembly.
11. Select the appropriate people.
Choose participants based on ability and effectiveness, and contact them early enough to allow preparation time.
12. Plan for outside work.
Do you need music from another source? Do you need any special audio visual equipment? Prepare ahead of time!
13. Have a rehearsal.
Call a rehearsal so that technical “bugs” don’t ruin a beautifully planned assembly.
14. Pray again.

Some General Suggestions for Leading Worship

1. Pay attention to song tempo and style.

Pay close attention to the tempo and style of the songs you choose. Putting like songs together can lead the church to high moments of praise or meaningful moments of meditation, but to mix types of songs can be confusing and ineffective. Don't transition from a fast song to a slow song and then back to a fast song. Group fast, medium, and slow songs with their own kind, and worship will be enhanced.

2. Plan the worship progression.

Try to always know where you are and where you are going in the course and implementation of the worship period. If you are confused, those who are trying to follow will certainly be. The more confident you are, the more you will be able to sense the Lord's direction and follow him. Plan the way you will move from one song or section to another. Try to avoid "blank spots." If there is a reason for a dead pause, lead the congregation through it, but if it is not appropriate, blank spots can feel awkward and stop the flow that has been created.

3. Increase effectiveness through variety.

One way to add effectiveness to a hymn or a medley is to modulate, or raise the pitch a half step, in between verses or songs. Other effective options are having the ladies or men sing alone or having someone sing a solo on the verse and then asking everyone to join in on the chorus. You may want to change the order of the assembly from week to week to meet your purpose and goals.

4. Print a program.

It is helpful for the congregation to have a printed program that gives an overview of where the assembly is going. This makes it easier for the worshiper to follow with less human distractions. A short paragraph describing the theme can engage the heart quickly and prepare the worshiper for the direction you will lead. But don't let the program kill spontaneity. Should you feel that a change is necessary, simply inform the worshipers of the adjustment and move on.

5. Introduce new songs slowly.

Don't try to teach too many new songs too quickly. Give the worshipers time to feel comfortable with a few new songs before introducing others.

6. Encourage worship rebirth.

Our worship traditions, trappings, and forms are all securities to us. We become accustomed to them and grow comfortable in their repetition. We must have an ongoing rebirth of worship in our churches and in our own lives, lest we allow familiarity to kill the experience of worship in spirit and in truth. When worship becomes familiar, worship becomes average. God deserves better than average. As we look for a new place in our spirits and fan flames of love for him that will grow into a passion for his presence, rebirth in worship will be a natural outpouring. The rebirth of worship will create more desire for God's presence, more participation, more spontaneity, more vertical relationships with the awesome God, and more unity among the believers.

My prayer is that the suggestions I have offered will help you gain confidence in planning and leading worship for a congregation that is hungry for encountering the presence of God.

Pray that God may use this hymnal to serve as a resource for the journey of worship for your church and for you personally. Embrace the call. Answer the call. Worship!

Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs

by Ken Young

My family and I recently visited the community that both nurtured the fledgling years of our work in ministry and shared in the celebration of the births of our children. We spent a wonderful weekend with precious friends, remembering those “Kodak moments” and romanticizing the past. As my wife and I talked about our visit, we were filled with mixed emotions. We felt a deep sense of gratitude to the Lord for the blessings of years gone by, but we also felt a great appreciation for what he is doing today, and an excitement about what he will do tomorrow.

Past, Present, and Future

God seems to have created us with this formula in mind: remember Him in the past + consider Him in the present + anticipate Him in the future = Faithful Living.

Do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. (Deuteronomy 4:9)

Encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today. (Hebrews 3:13)

Let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:25)

The past, the present, and the future are all key components to the strengthening of our faith.

Worship is the heart’s response to an eternal God—the God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow. One of the most powerful ways we have to express such worship is through music.

Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs

Paul gives special emphasis in both Ephesians and Colossians to the singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.

The psalms connected the worshipers to the past. Psalms helped the people remember what God had done for them. The “lament” psalms reminded them of the hopelessness and helplessness of life in darkness, while the “praise” psalms helped them celebrate God’s faithfulness in delivering them from that darkness. There were many such songs that continued to be part of the remembering experience of first-century worshipers. There was the song of Moses and Miriam found in Exodus 15, the song of Hannah found in 1 Samuel 2, and David’s song found in 1 Chronicles 29.

Hymns were the newer expressions of praise and faith that were added to the repertoire of the early church. They focused on the power of God in the present. We have remnants of these hymns throughout the New Testament:

Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead. (Revelation 15:3–4)

He appeared in the body, was vindicated by the Spirit. (1 Timothy 3:16)

Great and marvelous are your deeds. (Revelation 15:3–4)

They connected the promises of God from the past with the fulfillment of those promises in the present. They also pointed to the hope for the future.

The exact definition of spiritual songs is subject to some debate—perhaps they were simple, repetitive phrases or maybe they were songs with the repetition of one word or sound such as “Hallelujah!” or “Yashua!”

Just like the Christians of the first century, we still need to embrace the practice of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.

Mixing the Old and the New

Today, in addition to the literal psalms, many of which have been adapted to more modern music, we also have older hymns that help us remember the God of the past. Even though some old hymns, which were written to connect with the seafarer, may not touch the hearts of landlubbers of today, many old hymns still deeply move us. Songs like “Holy, Holy, Holy,” “Amazing Grace,” “Just As I Am,” and “How Great Thou Art” endure beyond the barriers of any single generation and continue to give us not only wonderful insights into the God of today, but connect us with the God of the past. As the psalms helped the early Christians stay connected to their past, so psalms and older hymns help us appreciate the heritage God has given us.

Psalms and older hymns will continue to play a vital part in the experience of worship in this generation and generations to come. It isn’t hard to imagine a young man standing before a congregation in the year 2050 (if the Lord doesn’t return before then) saying, “Let us sing ‘Glorify Thy Name’—a wonderful old hymn of praise that my grandfather loved and a song that still touches our hearts today.”

Our God is new everyday, and we will never exhaust new insights about our God. We will never cease to see him in new and refreshing ways. His beauty, power, and magnificence continue to unfold before us with each new day. That is why it is so important that new songs continue to be written and experienced to celebrate these new insights.

Just as the visit to our hometown brought new energy to my family’s appreciation for the past and the present, and a renewed hope for the future, may the psalms and hymns of our past help bring an unceasing appreciation for the glory of God. And may that brightness be celebrated through new songs that capture moments of the radiance we continue to see each day.

May this hymnal bring the songs of our past and the songs of today together in a rich blend of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. And may our worship honor God and encourage us, and all the more as we see the Day approaching.

Note from the Editor

Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs!
(Psalm 100:2)

What a blessing God has given the human family by giving us the ability to sing. No other earthly creature has such a gift, and no other gift quite touches the human heart and emotions as the gift of song.

Songs evoke deep passions and stir sleeping senses. They communicate our feelings like nothing else can. We can all name special songs that have ministered to us in moments of despair and others that have touched our souls at times of exuberant joy. Music has been the messenger of our sentiments to God throughout history:

When Moses crossed the Red Sea with the Israelites, there was a great celebration of song. (Exodus 15:1–21)

Who can forget David's psalm of remorse and repentance after he was confronted with his sin. (Psalm 51)

When the walls of Jerusalem were rebuilt, it was a time of great rejoicing and song. (Nehemiah 12:27–43)

When Mary visited Elizabeth and the baby John leaped in Elizabeth's womb, Mary burst forth in a song of praise to God. (Luke 1:46–55)

When Jesus was preparing to go to Gethsemane in his darkest hour, he sang a hymn with his disciples. (Matthew 26:30)

The privilege and blessings of worship transcend all time. From Moses to the early church to modern times, God's people have always yearned to praise his name. With these sentiments, Songs of Faith and Praise was compiled to inspire authentic, God-centered worship for believers today.

It is with sincere appreciation that I thank those listed on the acknowledgement page, without whom this hymnal would not be possible. A special thanks to Pam Stephenson for the countless hours of arranging and proofing; to Reid Lancaster for his superb typography, invaluable consultation, and arrangements; and to Gary Myers who assisted in coordinating the entire project.

Through our communication in song, our spirits are knitted and welded together into a lasting relationship with each other and with God. In singing we develop a longing and expectation for that time when all of God's singers come home to participate in the grandest chorus ever assembled, there to praise God with new voices, in tune with Heaven's angels (Revelation 5:12, 13).

Let them praises give Jehovah!

Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts. (Psalm 105:2)
